JEREMIAH 17:5-6

*Thus says the LORD: “Cursed is the man who trusts in man. And makes flesh his strength, Whose heart departs from the LORD.
6 For he shall be like a shrub in the desert, And shall not see when good comes,
But shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, In a salt land which is not inhabited.*

JEREMIAH 17:7-8

*7 "Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, And whose hope is the LORD.
8 For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters, Which spreads out its roots by the river, And will not fear when heat comes; But its leaf will be green, And will not be anxious in the year of drought, Nor will cease from yielding fruit.*

Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought.

- Jeremiah 17:7-8

Thus says the Lord:

“Cursed is the man who trusts in man
And makes flesh his strength,
Whose heart departs from the Lord.
For he shall be like a shrub in the desert,
And shall not see when good comes,
But shall inhabit the parched places
in the wilderness,
In a salt land which is not inhabited.

“Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord,
And whose hope is the Lord.
For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters,
Which spreads out its roots by the river,
And will not fear when heat comes;
But its leaf will be green,
And will not be anxious in the year
of drought,
Nor will cease from yielding fruit.

Jeremiah 17:5-8

Provision in Every Season

01

Natural circumstances don't define God's provision.

Today, it is so easy to become overwhelmed and discouraged by what we see in the natural.

Yet the Bible reminds us that though we are in the world, we are not of the world (John 17:16).

Biblical examples:

1. Joseph prospered Egypt during a time of severe famine.

Genesis 41:53-57

53 The seven years of abundance in Egypt came to an end, 54 and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all the other lands, but in the whole land of Egypt there was food. 55 When all Egypt began to feel the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph and do what he tells you." 56 When the famine had spread over the whole country, Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout Egypt. 57 And all the world came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe everywhere.

::::: Biblical examples:

2. Isaac sowed during a famine and reaped a hundredfold harvest.

Genesis 26:12-14

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year a hundredfold; and the LORD blessed him. 13 The man began to prosper, and continued prospering until he became very prosperous; 14 for he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds and a great number of servants.

Biblical examples:

3. Abraham also prospered in a time of famine.

Genesis 12:10

10 Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe.

Genesis 13: 2 Abram had become very wealthy in livestock and in silver and gold.

:::::

Galatians 3:29

And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants, heirs according to promise

Genesis 12:2

*I will make you a great nation;
I will bless you and make your name great;
and you shall be a blessing.*

01

Natural circumstances
don't define God's provision.

Philippians 4:19

“My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.”

His provision flows from His inexhaustible riches, not from the limited resources of this world. God's supply operates independently of the world's economy, and He desires to bless His people abundantly.

02

Hear the whole Gospel to fully receive what He has provided

:::::

Joshua 1:8

Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

Psalm 1:

2 but whose delight is in the law of the LORD, and who meditates on his law day and night.

3 That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither—whatever they do prospers.

::: :::

1 Timothy 6:10

*10 For the love of money is the root of all evil:
which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.*

Matthew 6:31-33

Therefore do not worry, saying, “What shall we eat?” or “What shall we drink?” or “What shall we wear? . . . For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Our Father wants to provide for and bless us so that we can be a blessing to others. When we keep our eyes on Him, we can enjoy His provision without falling into covetousness or fear.

God's provision is blood-bought

God's provision for the believer flows because of the finished work of Christ.

2 Corinthians 8:9 says,

“For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich.”

...:::
If we do not receive what Jesus suffered to give us, His work in that area of our lives remains unclaimed. God does not want Christ's suffering and sacrifice to be in vain. He desires for us to step fully into all that His Son's finished work has secured.

04

Faith positions us to receive what grace has given

Ephesians 2:8

8 For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—

Romans 10:17

17 Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word about Christ.

This is why we need to keep hearing the true, undiluted gospel preached. Hearing the gospel in its fullness not only strengthens our hearts but also causes faith to arise in us. And it is by faith that we lay hold of every blessing that grace has already freely supplied.

God's supply, grace, provision, and goodness are constantly flowing toward us because of the finished work of Christ

2 Corinthians 9:8 says,

“And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work.”

05

Look to Jesus, the true source of your blessings.

And as we come to Him, drink deeply of His Word, and live conscious of His finished work, rivers of supply, wisdom, and favor will flow from within, touching every part of our lives!

The more we look to the Lord, the true source of all our blessings, and the more we hear about Him—His goodness, His finished work, and His heart for us—the more we will be positioned to receive all that He died to give us.

DECLARATION

1. "I declare that God is my source. I trust in Him to provide for all of my needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:19)

2. "I declare that I am blessed to be a blessing. I will use my resources to help others and to further God's kingdom." (Genesis 12:2)

3. "I declare that I am free from the love of money and the fear of lack. I trust that God will meet all of my needs according to His will." (1 Timothy 6:10)

4. "I declare that I am a good steward of the resources God has entrusted to me. I will use my money and possessions wisely and responsibly." (Matthew 25:14-30)

5. "I declare that I have the power to create wealth. Through hard work, wise investments, and obedience to God's word, I will prosper in every area of my life." (Proverbs 13:11)
